A shared vision

"We are proud to welcome Selveco into Breva Marine's international dealer network," said Cinzia Grottoli, CEO of Breva Marine. "Poland is a dynamic and growing market, and we have found in Selveco a partner who shares our same philosophy: quality, passion, and customer care. Together, we want to bring to Poland the Italian design, modularity, and comfort that define our boats."

Selveco added: "Collaborating with a brand like Breva Marine allows us to introduce a new dimension of style and innovation to the Polish market. Breva boats combine elegance and technology, and we are confident they will capture the attention of boating enthusiasts across the country."

Setting a new course toward Northern Europe

The collaboration will soon come to life through dedicated launch events, sea trials, and local promotional activities.
Breva Marine and Selveco will work side by side to build a strong and lasting network, offering customers a premium after-sales experience and European-level service standards.
